BOUND BY LAND ON TWO SIDES AND pressed by the Capos, Malapaya Island in northern Palawan is the last haven of the rare Irrawaddy Dolphins (Orca brevirostris) in the Philippines.

As another day breaks, a few of the dolphins can be seen cavorting

The Irrawaddy is a light gray to white marine mammal with a small, triangular dorsal fin.

While Southern Dolphins rule over the outer islands, the smaller and more elusive Irrawaddies inhabit its inner portions.

THE SOLDIERS DEPLOYED TO 28 BARANGAYS in Metro Manila since December will not be recalled, but have been ordered to "dress down," Executive Secretary Eduardo Erzeta said yesterday.

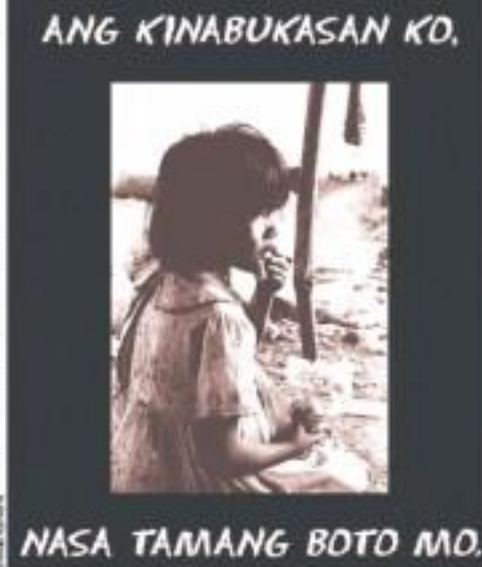

Erzeta admitted at his weekly press briefing that the presence of soldiers in full battle gear among residents of depressed areas in the metropolitan area is "distasteful."

He said that during election periods, soldiers should only maintain peace and order, ensure that the people were freely exercising their right of suffrage, and "watch when their role may be considered under a [Commission on Elections] resolution."

Erzeta was responding to the complaint of party-list groups that soldiers had been openly campaigning against leftist organizations that would take part in the possible party-list elections in May.

"What has happened, we will remind [the soldiers] not to do it again because it amounts of getting involved unnecessarily in elections," he said.

Erzeta said that after seeing front-page pictures in several dailies showing soldiers moving around with long arms, he called up Camp

By Riza Padro

NINE INDEPENDENT and opposition candidates led by Sen. Francis Pangilinan topped a survey on senatorial preferences last month by the Social Weather Stations with administration aspirants snagging only three slots in the magic 12 circle, the SWS said yesterday.

The SWS first Quarter 2007 survey showed that over one in two registered voters (58 percent) chose Pangilinan, an independent politician, over former Sen. Loren Legarda (54 percent) placed second and Senate President Manuel Villar Jr. (32 percent) topped the third spot, according to the SWS release.

Legarda had previously topped the third and fourth quarterly rounds of the SWS surveys last year.

In a press statement, he stated Pangilinan said, "While we do not see us as an independent candidate, we placed the future of our political life in the hands of the Filipino people, and treated and treated that our people will support candidates who may be helped by a lack of immediate and managed machinery, but are

SC orders oil firms to leave Pandacan

RIGHT IN THE REDHORNHOOD: The oil depot in Pandacan used by the Big 3 oil firms—Caltex, Petron and Shell—was set up in 1918 in "Little Venice."

By Lito B. Salazar

THE SUPREME COURT YESTERDAY ORDERED the closure of the Pandacan oil depot in Manila that three big oil companies are using because it could be a terrorist target.

The oil firms are Caltex Philippines Inc. (now Chevron), Petron Corp. and Philippine Shell Petroleum Corp.

Siting on the southern bank of the Pasig River near Malabon, Pandacan, the sprawling depot supplies about half of Luzon's fuel needs and about 82 percent of Metro Manila's gasoline and diesel requirements.

The Supreme Court directed Mayor Lito Linares to "immediately order" a local ordinance meant to prevent an attack on the facility and to protect the public.

MESSAGE FROM KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT NILSEN TUCKER

Follow Kiwanians. Welcome to Manila and the annual Kiwanis Asia-Pacific convention. I look forward to meeting each of you and sharing the following of Kiwanis.

A few weeks ago, Kiwanis International marked its 67th anniversary. Five other volunteer organizations also have 67 or more years and 67 more achievements. But I am most encouraged... (text continues) ...by the fact that as an international organization, Kiwanis is really oriented towards the future. Only by looking forward, only by setting our eyes future rather than by waiting for the future to happen, can we move the organization forward.

This is the promise of everything we do, to move Kiwanis forward. If you take nothing else away from this convention, I hope it will be the spirit of moving forward, of creating the Kiwanis we need to serve the world tomorrow.

We're the children people in the world, because we have this ability and the desire to share our lives with others. We are members of a great service club with a long history and an estimated 1.6 million members in over 100 countries. President and proud to share the title "Kiwanian" with each of you.

NILSEN TUCKER
Kiwanis International President

Gov't starts streamlining bureaucracy

12 agencies, offices to lay off 2,065 workers

By Dore C. Donales

THE GOVERNMENT HAS MADE INROADS IN STREAMLINING its bureaucracy and corporate interests, with restructuring programs for 12 units now in the pipeline out of 112 targeted offices, agencies and government-owned and -controlled corporations.

Based on documents from the Department of Budget and Management, the restructuring programs of a dozen government entities had been approved, and those will result in the elimination of 2,065 or 24.7 percent of employees and transfers to P256 million in estimated savings for the year.

The DBM documents showed that 48 similar proposals to restructure have far been submitted and currently under evaluation, one of the targeted 112 units agencies, offices and GOCCs.

The 12 units involve reform programs that had been approved by the national government are the Civil Service Commission, Office of the President, Office of the Vice President, Center for Worker Service Board, Housing and Urban Development Coordinating Council, Philippine Council for Sustainable Development, Staff, Philippine Housing Commission, Social Policy Office Administration, National Home Mortgage Finance Corp., Film Studio Development Foundation, Philippine Institute of Development Studies and Technology Resources and Conditional Grants.

Forex reserves breach $24-B mark

By Dore C. Donales

THE PHILIPPINE EXCHANGE RATE INTER-national reserves breached the $24-billion mark for the first time on Wednesday, supported by new official development assistance loans from multilateral lenders and net foreign exchange purchases by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas.

BSP Governor Alexander Abaya Jr. yesterday reported that the end February 1981 climbed to $24.37 billion, $600 million higher than the end January level of $23.67 billion.

The BR, a key indicator of the ability to service the foreign exchange requirements of the economy, consists of the BSP's gross foreign currency holdings, gold reserves, foreign investments and special drawing rights from the International Monetary Fund.

"The increase in reserves was linked to several factors, including the national government's deposit of the proceeds from its program loans from the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank, as well as the BSP's foreign exchange operations and income from investments abroad," Abaya said.

The country's strong foreign reserves build-up was also helped by remittances from overseas Filipino workers, foreign direct investments and, in recent months, the strong inflow of portfolio investments. These inflows had allowed the BSP to become a heavy buyer of dollars in the

How you negotiated that that you were owed $400?
I was definitely shocked, but that's the nature of the game. I'd like to meet with a lawyer, some people say so a week after the judge said I won.

Do you think you're a better singer than some of those that are in the 400?
There are some big names out there. But I think when the judge said I had the I was up there with the best ones. No one can predict how America will vote.

Some analysts say the reason you had to leave was, you didn't develop a big enough fan base. That's partly true. Some [commentators] get so much bigger fan base or amount of early exposure than I did. I had a big fan base, but I think I was a little more of a one-time hit. I think I was a little more of a one-time hit. I think I was a little more of a one-time hit.

I wouldn't want to meet and be successful in other parts of the world, especially the Philippines. That would be great, yes.

Really hard. I only did 40 days and I think I kind of got a little bit of a break. I think I kind of got a little bit of a break. I think I kind of got a little bit of a break.
